EVERYWHERE, FOR EVERYONE, A PLAYER IN YOUR DAILY LIFE

BARBARA LUISI

THE ROSE AND THE OLIVE TREE

The work of Barbara Luisi is a reflection on the body and on the relationship that can sometimes develop between its depiction in photography and nature.

This exhibition showcases intimate works from the AKT-Ageless Beauty series produced in 2017, in which the ancient olive trees of Puglia and nudes of mature models are put side by side, sparking surprising connections.

This exhibition also goes back over some of the key highlights in Barbara Luisi's artistic output, not least the monumental portraits shown in New York and Venice.

Through black and white, platinum prints, large formats and fabric printing, Barbara Luisi beckons us into a strange world where bodies, by transcending time, unveil an unsuspecting and dazzling beauty in which the secular rubs shoulders with the sacred.

Tuesdays to Sundays:
10.30-17.30

(March, April and September) and 10.30-18.30
(May to August).

Closed on 1st May.
